CONTRASTS SET THEME FOR BALL SATURDAY NIGHT

By BILL BUCHAN

Impressive ceremony will rule for a few minutes Saturday night. When the spotlights flood the stage at the Inaugural Ball it will mean a new departure for the college. A new tradition in the induction of student body officers will set the theme for one of the most pretentious of all college affairs, the Inaugural Ball.

Direct Contrast

The soft music of a choir of ten voices will be in marked contrast to the hilarity that will reign during the night. The Inaugural Ceremony, written by Norman Zech and Edith White will be brief, yet will provide a striking contrast to the blatent campaign week preceeding the ball.

Ceremony will be ruled out when the flood lights dim on the inaugural platform. The Ball will be on in full sway. Several surprise features are being lined up for presentation. Many prominent San Franciscans will be the guests of the college as will many of the well-known entertainers of the Bay Region. Harry Owens, famous orchestra leader, has tentatively accepted the invitation to make an appearance during the evening. Writer of the hit tune "Sweet Leilani," Owens was one of the first to make Hawaiian music popular in dance arrangements. He has just finished the music for "Coconut Grove" a new motion picture.

Meaken Appears

Joining Owens will probably be Jack Meaken of radio fame. Meaken, known from coast to coast for his "Bug House Rythms," and "Music by Meaken" will be spotlighted with the orchestra in a specialty number.

Peace Advocates Meet In Annual Demonstration On War and War Propagandists

By SIBYL HURNING

Peace advocates will gather in the gym at noon today in the annual demonstration against war. The meeting will be one of many held in American universities and colleges.

Student Chairman will be Bob Van Houte of Delta Sigma. Van Houte in outlining the program declared, "This annual meeting is to show the follies of war. We hope that every student on the campus will give us the necessary support in this demonstration."

The formal purpose of the rally will be to formulate demands for American neutrality in the face of the present European and Sino-Japanese war scares. Methods of war propaganda will be revealed by speakers on the program.

Five Speakers

Five speakers will be presented by the combined Peace rally committee. Dr. Alexander C. Roberts, president of the college, will be the main speaker of the day. He will present his views towards the solution of the world problem in reference to peace.

Mrs. Bertha Monroe, sponsor of the International Relations Club, will be the second speaker on the program. Long an advocate of the peace movement, will probably discuss the ways of the war propagandists. In this relation she will probably discuss the counter- propaganda of the World Peaceways in its campaign to outlaw war.

Two student speakers, in addition to Van Houte, will be heard

SMITH SHORT 50 AS WORTH ENTERS PREXY RUN-OFF VOTE, FRIDAY

STEWART BEATS HURNING

STADELMAN BEATS ALMARIE PORTEOUS IN SECRETARY RACE

By TIM GUINEY

Ed Smith and Cliff Worth were voted the two top men for the student body presidency in yesterday's election, Smith receiving 451 votes, Worth 292, and Norman Zech, the third candidate for the position, 245 votes. The lack of a majority on the part of any of the candidates will result in a run-off election to be held Friday, Worth and Smith again vieing for the coveted post.

Closest to achieving the majority vote which would have eliminated a run-off was Ed Smith, whose total ballot was a scant 47 votes from the necessary amount.

12 Votes Elect

In the race for the Vice-Presidency, Audrey Stewart defeated Sibyl Hurning, 490 to 478. The race for Secretary saw Evelyn Stadleman defeat Almarie Porteous, 480 to 445. Vernon Rees ran unopposed for the office of treasurer, receiving 886 votes for the position. Jim Martin was the unopposed candidate for Director of Publications, receiving 821 votes. For Yell Leader, Vernon Oulette ran unopposed, received 851 votes.

All of the amendments up for Student Body vote were passed favorably, No. 1, relative to the Board of Publications, receiving a yes vote of 723, as compared to 101 negative ballots. No. 2, dealing with the presenting of an Executive Board vote to the representative from the California Student Teacher's Federation, was closest in the amendment race, receiving 473 affirmative votes to 347 negative ballots. Amendment No. 3, the changing of the design of State block, received 662 in its favor, as compared to 191 against. No. 4, requiring Senior class presidents to be eligible for graduation at the conclusion of the semester, won with 707 for, 153 against.

Bailey Wins

The campaign for offices in the Associated Women Students saw Kay Bailey take a 360 to 175 victory over Carol Crouch in the race for the presidency of the group. Victoria Regier defeated Ruth Creon for the Vice-Presidency, the former receiving 321 votes as compared to 218 for her opponent. For Secretary, Kay Landerville defeated Lois Towle, 315 to 222. The race for the position of Treasurer ended in the victory of Gladys Ketterlin over Kay Johnston, the former receiving 290 votes over 238 for Miss Johnston.

The run-off for the Presidency will take place on Friday, during the hours of 9 to 4, candidates Worth and Smith again clashing for the job of heading the student body.

Large Turnout

An unexpected turnout on the part of student body members resulted in the casting of 988 ballots. Five machines were used to record the votes, a steady line of voters keeping the committee active during the entire course of the voting hours.

Twelve absentee ballots were cast during the course of the day's voting, the entire amount, however, failing to change the direct results of the balloting. The controversy over amendment number 2, giving a vote to the representative of the California Student Teachers Association, indicated the heat of the students relative to this amendment.

CANDIDATES GIVE NEWS ON RUN-OFF

Resulting in a run-off between Ed Smith and Cliff Worth for the presidency, the elections for student body offices yesterday brought various reactions from the different candidates.

Ed Smith, when interviewed immediately after the results were posted, remarked, "I want to give my sincere thanks to the people who voted for me. Election promises are always made in the heat of the campaign, but I sincerely make this one promise to you. Elected or not, there will be just one thing—the betterment of the college."

Cliff Worth remarked that he was glad to be in the run-off, and said, "I really thank all those who voted for me, and next Friday, when you vote again, think of all the things I hope to do for the Student Body if I am to be president."

Audrey Stewart, elected vice-president, stated, "Thank you. I hope I can carry on as well as Dawn Wilson. I hope I won't let those who voted for me down."

Elected to the office of secretary, Evelyn Stadelman said, "I would like to thank those who supported me. I know I will do my utmost to fulfill the requirements of the office.

Vernon Rees, yell leader, Jim Martin, Publicity Director, and Vernon Oulette, treasurer, were unopposed.

EDITORIALS

Editorials and feature articles in the Golden Gater reflect only the writer's opinion. They make no claim to represent student or administration opinion. All unsigned editorials are by the Editor.

Is The Ex Board Outmoded? . .

Now that elections are just about washed up and there is more than a modicum of cheering and backslapping on this conservative campus, the Golden Gater will gently iterate that it considers the present Executive Council a sad excuse for a legislative body. It is not that we have any grievance with the personnel of that council, they are, we suppose, merely victims of an administrative anachronism.

Corporative business has been the outstanding example of efficient management in the past century; American cities are turning one after another to city manager plans, as fast as they can throw off the tentacles of civic corruption. Both these plans are built around the well-substantiated theory that too many cooks spoil the brew.

College student administration is not yet ready for single-head management, but the next most efficient means of eliminating the bungling, stupidities, and other outgrowths of the present over-populated board is to cut it down to six members.

Why Not Drop the Anchor? . . .

We are firm in our conviction that no amount of reorganization is going to do any appreciable good as long as every petty class politician and "major" club president is allowed to clutter up the Executive Board meetings. It follows syllogistically that any progressive and intensive program for anything from new buildings to clean halls is doomed before it starts.

Despite the recent promises of presidential aspirants, any campaign for a better State will be expedited by a small, democratically-elected Executive Council, which, by way of definition, is in every way the exact opposite of the present system.

From This Side

By TIM GUINEY

Our college, snapping out of its semester-long ennui, now finds itself looking with bleary-eyed amazement at the prospect of today's noonday peace rally. While the editorial writers of the Golden Gater seem to feel that such a movement is nothing more than a waste of time because of the imperialistic nature of the capitalistic system, we are unable to concur in this belief, rather feeling that even a temporary postponement of war through agitation is a definite step in the right direction.

Says the Golden Gater editorial writer, in a rather self-righteous spirit: "Of course loyal 'Americans' will jump at our throats for thus calumniating the land of Old Glory." Very, very nice, but just so much bull and baloney. No one can be any safer than the person who opposes peace movements. Organizations such as the American Legion would welcome him to arms as a blood brother, the prodigal son returning to the fold. We offer as proof, the recent Armistice Day parade, and the fact that this college's Dr. Fisk had to get the support of half of San Francisco's influential people before the good old Legion would allow a peace unit to march in the affair.

Organized movements for peace have been blocked and stymied in every possible manner, mainly by those professional Americans operating under the guise of patriotism, or those victims of red-baiting propaganda so strong in numbers and so weak in backbone and mentality. Of course, the fact that an ardent supporter of imperialism, temporarily residing on the faculty while vacationing from a land crushed under the iron heel of a biologically questionable dictator, has supported the editorial only strengthens our faith in the possibilities of the American collegians' campaign for peace.

We sincerely urge you to attend today's rally. The only good war that we can think of is a war against war.

Spring Concert Presented At Mission High School

Five organizations will combine in the Spring Music Concert given Tuesday night at 8:15 in the Mission High School Auditorium. The concert will be under the general sponsorship of the Music Department and the Music Federation.

Three vocal organizations, the Treble Clef, The A Capella Choir, and the Madrigal Singers will be heard in a variety of selections. The Treble Clef group, under the direction of Knuth will sing Rhodora by Braine, Clouds by Charles, and the Seagull by Stroesel. This will be the first concert appearance of Treble Clef, a new women's choral society founded on the campus.

Two major musical selections will be featured by the College Symphony Orchestra as their portion of the program. Suite For Orchestra by James Snyder will be given its premier performance by the Symphony. Snyder, a graduate of the college entitles the movements in the standard manner, starting with a marked tempo, gradually working up to a crescendo, and fading to the somber in the finale. The work is considered outstanding by many musicians. The symphonic tone poem, "The Wreck of the Hesperus" by Frederic Zech is the second orchestral selection.

The College Band, led by Hugo Ernst, will present two symphonic works. The Norwegian Dances by Grieg and the majestic finale of the Fourth Symphony of Tschaikowsky will be given by this organization.

Information of the concert may be secured from the Music Department or from the president of the Music Federation, Howard Brubeck.

Juniors Hold Ad Dinner

An "Advertising Dinner," an effort to present new methods of preparing and serving meals, will be featured by the Low Junior Class as one of their semester activities. The dinner, open to the general student body, will be held tomorrow in the Co-op. Tickets will be on sale at 25 cents. Members of the low junior class will be given the special rate of 15 cents. The dinner will be five courses and the entertainment for the evening will feature community singing and social games.

The dinner will serve to introduce the Low Junior Jam to be held in the gym on May 6. Tickets for the Jam will go on sale immediately after the dinner. Features will be the door prize of one semester's tuition to the college. Holder of the winning ticket need not be present at the dance to collect the prize, according to Lew Morris, treasurer of the class.

Alumni Fete Over Flow For

Celebrating the 37th birthday of the San Francisco State Alumni Association, a birthday dinner will be held at the Western Women's Club on Saturday, April 30. The affair will be the pre-climax to the Alumni Homecoming Day.

An overflow crowd is expected with advance reservations totaling close to 300. Prominent leaders in State and civic affairs have been invited as special guests.

Miss Alice Rose Power, member of the State Board of Education, will be the guest speaker of the evening. Miss Power is chairman of the educational exhibits at the Golden Gate International Exposition in 1939.

The dinner will be open to members of the student body and will precede the Inaugural Ball.

A. W. S. HOLD DINE JINX ON MAY 5

Featuring the May Day theme, the Associated Women Students will have a Dine Jinx in the Co-Op, May 5, at 5:30 p. m. The price per plate will be 25 cents.

In charge of the affair will be Betty Brown, arrangement chairman; Peggy Clifford, publicity chairman Jean Scott, clean up chairman; Dorothy LaValle, decorations; Frances Bolander, intertainment; Betty Zech, food chairman.

American News Guild Makes Three Awards

Three small gold and black pins will be awarded for outstanding journalistic and literary accomplishments during the semester at the annual Publications Dinner, Friday evening, May 6. The awards will be made by the local chapter of the American Newspaper Guild.

Two of the pins will be journalism awards, one for the best news story during the year, and one for the best feature story. The winning stories will be selected by two newspapermen who are members of the downtown chapter of the News Guild. The State chapter will make a preliminary selection of the stories that are to be submitted to the two journalists. Don Wiley, President of the Northern California Newspaper Guild, is expected to present the awards, according to Bill Buchan, charter member of the local guild.

The winning literary work will be based upon contributions to the Orphic, a publication sponsored by the Scribes Club. Contributions include short stories, essays, verse and drama. The judges are: Mr. Frank Fenton, Associate Professor of English; Mrs. Ruth Witt-Diamant, Assistant Professor of English; and Mr. Hugh Baker, Instructor in English.

An award for outstanding art work has been postponed until next semester.

GALA RALLY PARADE FRIDAY

Theme of this Friday's Rally Talent Parade will be, "Song Festival," announced Hal Delma, student yell leader and chairman of the Parade. Appearing on this Friday program will be Sam Elkind, guitarist and singer; Donald Graser, virtuoso of the violin; Shirley Finegold, blues singer; Tony Calonico, operatic vocalist. Also Helen Newell and Bud Chandler will sing new songs written by Roland Ingraham, author of the tunes in the "Character," recent show put on by the Junior Class.

On May 6, the Final Talent Parade Contest will be held in Frederic Burk Auditorium at 7:30 before the Junior Class dance.

All those participating in this Friday's contest will be eligible for the finals.

SAY IT ISN'T SO

BY ALEX EDELSTEIN
Sports Editor

In their rags and sawdust journal published recently, the neophytic journalists from U. S. F., in reviewing the sports news of the year, passed in retrospection over the basketball season. Which brings to the mind's eye their usual dig at San Francisco State. This one isn't even original.

Say they, "The basketball game played with San Francisco State at Kezar Pavilion was the most sloppily played contest of the year. In justice to the casabans, it may be said that a team cannot play anything but lousy when facing a foe of that caliber."

This is not a direct quote, in consideration of our linotypist, Oscar, who told us recently that he tries to keep his hands clean when running the machine.

Looking back at the issue of Friday, April 11, the Gater spoke thus: "Against San Jose State the basketball team played real ball, which brings to mind that a team usually only plays poorly when facing a poor foe. The Gaters were definitely sad against the Dons."

Yes, they can't even be original. Having a ten page pulp instead of an annual for lack of student support isn't original either. And it seems to me that the State casabans beat the U. S. F. quintet 41-28 a few nights ago.

Notes on the cuff . . . It seems that a kid named McRitchie, "Sandy" to you, has hit seven times in his last eight times at bat . . . Mac says he's open to offers . . . Any kind . . . Well, Gehrig's getting old . . . Just be patient . . . QUIET . . . Chances of Tom Collingwood's further matriculation at State seem pretty slim according to present reports. "Gabby" McGann, erstwhile junior varsity cager, reports that Collingwood, one of the better cagers in the bay area, is not so hot for the proposition . . . Says Bill "Porky" Stein, "Sure I'm going to play football . . . Farmer and Harden ought to send all their men out for track. It builds you up, and besides, look how fast Hodgins, Marder, Pantages and Stein are getting. When Stein and the other boys get out in front running interference, we'll knock them all down." . . . Aren't you taking something for granted, Owens?

Golfers Play Cal Aggies, San Mateo

By D. N. SCHUTZ

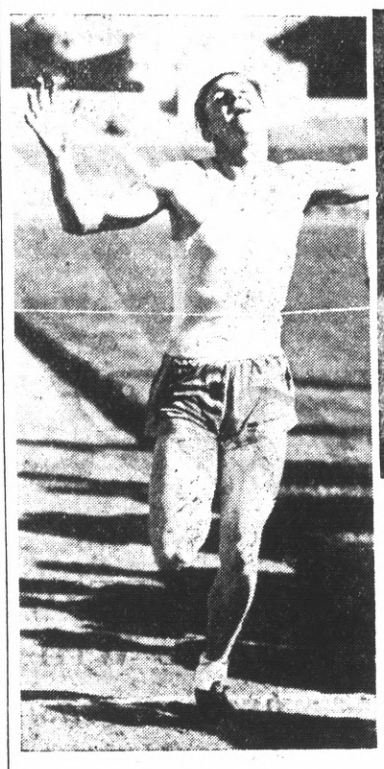
State's newly organized golf squad meets its toughest competition of the season when it tackles San Mateo Junior College tomorrow and the California Aggies Saturday. Both matches scheduled for Ingleside Golf Course.

Tomorrow's match against the Aggies, will be a four-man team affair, with Dick Hawkins and Doc Smith playing number one.

The other combination will find Dave Schutz and Art Cerf of the Gaters meeting an un-named team from Davis.

Saturday the match will consist of six-man teams. Dick Hawkins will team with Lloyd Sagon and play the number one spot. Schutz and Smith will form the second team, with Cerf and Jack Fischer the third duo.

STATE CINDERMEN MEET RAMS



Coach Dean Cox, above; Arvo Kannisto, left, who last Saturday set a school and meet record when he won the half mile in 2:00.2. It is reported from reliable sources that Kannisto has hung up his spikes for the season and might not compete against S. F. J. C. Saturday.

ORPHANS HEAVY UNDERDOGS IN KEZAR CLASH; THEOFIELD, HOPKINS, KLINE LEAD GATERS

By ALEX EDELSTEIN

Ninety to thirty-two. Yes, that tells the sad story of the Gater dope bucket. Ninety to thirty-two.

State cindermen will warm up in preparation for future meets when they tangle with the San Francisco Junior College track team Saturday morning at Roberts Field as a part of the giant alumni day festivities. The meet, held at 10:30 o'clock, will precede the State-Cal Aggies baseball game, to be held at two-thirty.

The Gater sheet sees a victory in every event for State, a happening unprecedented in past meets. This is due not particularly to the ability of the Gater tracksters but more to the pitiful weakness of the J. C. runners. Only possible firsts are a win for "Duke" Worsham in the javelin and a pole vault win for Dick Emery.

Two Mile Not Listed

The Orphans from Powell Street, Galileo High School and all points west will be heavy underdogs in the betting, and it is possible that State could score more heavily in the meet if it were not for the juvenility of the Powell Street urchins, the two mile run not being listed on the program. As Fred Kline, Gater distance man, has been undefeated over that distance this year, it is not unreasonable to suppose that he would win that event. Kline is also favored in the mile, but might be pressed by Jack Carolan, former Poly Hi star.

Last Dual Meet

The meet Saturday will be the last dual meet of the year for Coach Cox's cindermen and should be the scene of record breaking performances. Those athletes who might crash through are Arvo Kannisto, who broke the school record in the half mile last week, Daryl Hopkins in the hurdles, and Luther Theofield in the sprints. Theofield should break 10 flat for the first time this year, even though the Roberts Field track is not very fast.

Socrates Pantages, Bill Stein and Kenny Wilkes should also crash through for their share of points. Pantages should win the shot and take a third in the discus, while Stein should win the platter event and take an easy second in the shot. Bob Hodgins is also a possibility in the discus and shot and may make it a clean sweep for the Gaters in both events. Kenny Wilkes is listed for thirds in the two sprints and a good second behind Hopkins in the low hurdles.

Nine Meets Cal Aggies Saturday At Roberts Field

Trying for an upset, Coach Hal Harden's baseballers will meet the Cal Aggies at Roberts Stadium Saturday at two-thirty in the last game of the season, as part of Alumni Day.

Beaten 5 to 2 by the Davis Farmers last Saturday, the Gaters are expected to turn the tables. The Aggies have a well balanced team, as can be seen by looking at last Saturday's box score. All except one player hit safely, while only one error marred their fielding record.

The Gaters have improved their fielding in the past few games, while the hitting has been erratic. Don McRitchie, who gathered three of the seven State bingles against the Aggies, has been carrying the brunt of the Gater offense.

Tentative Starting Lineup

Second Team Beats Bucs

Led by Andy Gavron, State's second team beat Balboa high school 7 to 6 last Monday afternoon at Roberts Stadium.

Gavron hit a double and two singles in three times up to head the Gater attack. Ru Stone, George Mailho, Bill Hammond, Dave Schutz and Al Cleary all hurled for the Gaters, with Stone receiving credit for the victory.

Birdmen vs. California

San Francisco State's most gifted badminton players made their initial start in intercollegiate competition last night when they met the University of California representatives in the Women's gym. The match, a purely social undertaking, finished too late for today's coverage. Results will be given next issue.

INTRAMURAL NETMEN PLAY

Second-round matches in the 1938 intramural tennis tournament are getting under way on the college courts under the direction of Manager Vic Lobree.

Among the top-seeded players for this affair are Mitch Nasser, freshman member of the varsity squad, and Ronnie Lindlow, middle-distance man on the track team. Lindlow looks to have the edge, as he went to the finals last year, losing out to Doug Crary. Nasser is a real fighter, however, and is not counted out easily.

Among the other players who stand a good chance of copping the title, on the basis of past performances, are Joe Sanz, Willard Lincoln and Bill Trevorrow, all of wohm have been playing on the varsity. Although Lincoln has rated on the team's ladder, he has not been able to play in any matches, while the other two have seen action against other colleges.

BADMINTON TOURNAMENT NEAR END; SEMI-FINALS

With two teams already in the semi-finals, the mixed doubles badminton tournament, under the direction of Doug Crary, is rapidly nearing completion.

"Joe" Foley and Ru Stone gained the semi-final bracket through a bye and a default, while Shirley Ferman and Bob Bragg came through with a 15-7, 15-7 victory over Virginia Gildea and Bob Osegueda.

Quarter-finalists of the contest include the teams of Mary Anne Chapman-Cleon Abbott, Elsie Bernard-Carl Goldstein, Josephine Flanagan-Doug Crary, and "Sally" Scordelis-Bill Stein.

HICKEY NOW AT U. OF WASH.

By FLUFFY DUFF

Tuesday night Elizabeth Hickey, newly elected President of the Women's Athletic Association and Roberta "Bobby" Sandeen, one of the better known W. A. A. workers, left for Pullman, Washington, to attend the A. F. C. W. Conference.

The time they will have! My, oh, My! They will stay at the Washington Hotel in Pullman, have tea at the Washington State Sorority house and will enjoy many other things. However, they will have their duties to perform.

They must bring home the dope on the "Participation in Sports" question and the "Modern Dance and the Schools." So long as they don't eat too much and get a belly-ache, it's all right with us.

The tie between Roberta Porter and Dorothy Bareillas for secretary will be taken care of soon. It is just one of those things that two girls should be so equally popular as to tie for the office. May the best girl win.

Many of the girls are now engaged noontimes in playing in the mixed doubles badminton tourney. Doug Crary, manager of the undertaking, and one of the better players, says that he's going to have a horse shoe tournament sometime in the not distant future. It ought to be loads of fun, even if you do get your hands dirty while playing. Well, so long. Anither day.

Personality Sketch . . . MISS ELIZABETH HICKEY, native of Turlock, transfer for Modesto Junior College, 5' 7" tall, likes to dance (even if she doesn't like to admit it), been here 1 year and has already become W.A.A. prexy. Nice work (if you can get it). Can always be seen dashing around the gym working or playing tennis, basketball, etc. (she studies too). . . .

GATERS MEET ALL-STARS

Intramural baseball for 1938 ends tomorrow afternoon when the final round of the tournament will be held on the Upper Field. The contest will be between the winner of today's battle between the Golden Gaters and All Stars and the Block "S", which won its semi-final game from the Eighty-Two's Tuesday noon.

Because of the failure of many of the teams to appear for their scheduled game, many of the contests have been forfeited.

An All-Intramural team, composed of the eight best players to perform during the year, will be picked in next Friday's Gater.

CEREMONY MARKS INAUGURATION

Entertainment Headliners Scheduled For Appearances At Inauguration Saturday

Dr. Alexander C. Roberts will be the chairman of the Inaugural Ceremonies. He will introduce the inducting officers, Will J. J. Smith and Dawn Wilson. The Inaugural Ceremony will be brief and will be staged with a musical background. A ten-voice A capella choir will be featured.

"We believe the ceremony will surpass anything of its kind," declared Smith, today. "Its beauty will be in its evident simplicity and in the use of the background music. We feel that it will set a new high in the history of the college."

New Band Plays

Music for the Inaugural Ball will be furnished by Doug Kidd and his orchestra. This will be the first appearance of this group at any State function. Kidd is the leader of a versatile organization that has been playing engagements in the East Bay area. Several appearances at University of California dances are included among the engagements of this organization.

Novel souvenir programs have been promised by Dance Chairman Dawn Wilson. The programs will be done in purple and gold and are of original design. "The programs are swell," declared Dawn Wilson, "I know this sounds funny, but we really think they are outstanding. I don't think you could want a better souvenir of the dance."

Bids On Sale

Bids are on sale at the ticket booth in College Hall and are available from Alpha Phi Gamma members and members of the Executive Board. They are priced at one dollar per couple.

An information booth to provide answers to any queries on the Ball will be set up in College Hall.

The Ball will be semi-formal.

PEACE ADVOCATES

at the rally. Will J. J. Smith is scheduled to speak and to express the views of the Student Body towards the gathering. He will be followed by Muriel Senk, speaking on the "Student Attitude Towards War."

Plans for Memorial

Feature of the rally will be the discussion of plans for the memorial to students who will die in the next war. Van Houte will describe several of the memorials proposed in other colleges and will formulate plans for a memorial on the State campus. Among the memorials selected as models is the one proposed by the students of Stanford University. It is a semi-circular monolith of cement and granite. One side will be reserved for the names of the students to die in the next war. The other side will be sold to advertising agencies for cigarette ads. Purpose of the advertising will be to provide an annual fund for preservation of the memorial.

The rally will close with several musical solos.

Runoff Election Friday

The run-off election will be held Friday from 9 to 4 in room 117. Election returns indicated that Ed Smith and Cliff Worth would be the top candidates in the voting. The same procedure in voting will be followed with an accurate check being kept by the election committee.

MEXICAN, EUROPEAN TOURS FEATURE SUMMER SESSION

Scheduled to open June 20, the 1938 Summer Session will feature two three-week sessions, two field sessions, a post session, two European tours, and a Mexican tour. Dean of the Lower Division and Professor of Philosophy and Psychology, Walter J. Homan is director of the Summer Session.

Art Classes

Public exhibits of painting and sculpture may be seen at the Palace of Honor, the de Young Museum, and the San Francisco Museum of Art. The "World in Review" will consist of weekly lectures and discussions of contemporary trends and issues.

In the Education Department, Frederic Burk Demonstration School, organization of Rural School Room classes, Round Table Conferences, and One Week Conferences, forum discussions under the direction of such educational leaders as: Dr. Bernice Baxter, Dr. Jerome Cross, Dr. Charles Bursch, Dr. Richard French, Miss Carrie Daly, Mr. Elwood Stevenson, Miss Pansy Abbott, Dr. Vierling Kersey, Mr. Alfred Lentz.

Symphonic Band Opens Short Concert Series

In its first public appearance of a short concert series, State's symphonic band, under the direction of Mr. Karl Ernst, will be heard this morning at eleven o'clock in the patio between Anderson Hall and the women's gymnasium. Another outdoor performance will be given soon, which will tune the band up for its two big occasions—its official concert on May 3, in conjunction with the "Treble Clef Singers," and the Commencement exercises.

Regular group and sectional rehearsals are being carried on, and the band is rounding into shape nicely. Under the leadership of Norman Zech the organization made a fine showing last fall as a marching and pep band at the football games, and it is now Director Ernst's ambition to prove that the group can produce sweet music also.
